A Look At SM County Welfare

(First in Series)

By GEORGE GOLDING

"An inhumanly low level of subsistence" is the welfare award of too many aging and disabled Americans, according to Mrs. Helen Little, president of the Northern California Welfare Rights Organization.

Instead of providing a generous outpouring of benefits, as some people suggest, she says this nation's system of caring for its worn and infirm is penny-pinching and careless of human need.

In these days of rising rents and inflating prices, Mrs. Little says, welfare assistance is often barely enough to keep needy people alive.

In addition, welfare checks are often late in the mails, creating "serious" problems for the disabled and elderly who need that money to buy their food and pay their rents.

The rising crime rate, Mrs. Little says, is directly tied to the low level of welfare assistance.

Just how low is that level?

The "typical welfare family" described by state welfare offices is a non-working divorced mother with two or three children. Under a welfare program called "Aid to Families with Dependent Children," or "AFDC," she would receive $338 per month if she had two children, and $402 per month if she had three.

In many parts of San Mateo County, either sum would not rent an average house.

A two-person family such as an elderly husband and wife who qualified only for "general assistance" would receive $143 per month.

It is "general assistance" that Mrs. Little's Welfare Rights Organization rails against as "inhumanly low."

"General assistance is for people who qualify for nothing else, who have no other income," says Bob McMillan, deputy director of services for the San Mateo County Welfare Department.

AFDC payments can range from $166 for one person, to $716 for a family of 10.

There are other benefits, however, which may be even more sizeable than cash. A person who qualifies for welfare assistance will probably also qualify — automatically — for Medi-Cal and food stamps.

The sum of these benefits might seem generous to the low-paid worker, who scrapes to provide all his or her own food and lodging and transportation and medical care.

Sometimes, people suggest "I'd do better to quit work and go on welfare."

It's not quite that easy.

There are certain "qualifications," before a person receives welfare assistance.

He or she must be needy and willing to answer all questions about personal finances, income, outgo and prospects.

Mrs. Little, president of the 7,000 member Welfare Rights Organization headquartered in San Francisco, joins other civil rights groups in assuring that these questions do not get too personal.

Still, there remains that unwritten requirement to getting "on welfare," a person must either have little sense of privacy, be willing to sacrifice that privacy, or be able and willing to lie convincingly.

Millions of people find the required procedures little hindrance to entering their names on the welfare rolls.

Others find the question and answer session degrading and embarrassing.

Others answer the questions with lies.

The number has never been determined, but a state welfare official said a few years ago that 5 per cent of all welfare claims were fraudulent.

Just how he knew that specific number was never made clear; but the parade of welfare fraud cases through county courts is a continuing parade.

There are people who lie.

Some admit it's easy.

You assume a role, they say, and play it.

Whether such people are actually "able" to support themselves remains one of the all-time mysteries of welfare.

A person who begs for welfare help obviously needs help, some welfare officials say.

Welfare workers are too heavily worked to allow much investigation of claims, they say, and civil rights protections apply to the guilty as well as the innocent.

Leaflets are available at any of the five district welfare offices in San Mateo County, describing legal and civil rights under the system outlining how to apply and what to expect.

State and federal information is also available.

And there is the Welfare Rights Organization at 942 Market St., San Francisco. There is no similar group in San Mateo County.

All these groups point out that welfare questioners are not allowed to treat applicants with suspicion and distrust, but must treat them like the decent human beings we are all expected to be.

What Welfare Really Costs

What does "welfare" cost?

To anyone whose income is counted in the hundreds, the sums are staggering.

In California, nearly $2 billion is spent per year for a single program called Aid to Families with Dependent Children.

In San Mateo County, $86 million, almost half the total county government budget of $175 million, goes to welfare efforts.

There are 2,000 county Welfare Department employes, servicing 10,000 welfare "clients" at any one time. The number of clients totals 50,000 during a year.

Within the county welfare budget, Social Services Division, the largest sub-unit, spends $55 million. State and federal subsidies provide $32 million of that, San Mateo County taxpayers, $23 million.

This is approximately $46 per year from every man woman and child residing in the county.

And it does not include Chope Community Hospital, Mental Health, or other welfare department services.

It does include "general assistance" and "Aid to Families with Dependent Children" cash allotments totalling $33 million.

Then there's $10 million for the county's share in Medi-Cal; $2.6 million in cash payments to people covered by variations of Social Security; $2.7 million for housemaid service for the elderly and handicapped.

All other efforts of Social Services Division — including protective services for children and adults — total $3.5 million.

Jeff High Board Girds For Teacher Strike

Emergency provisions in preparation for a possible strike in the Jefferson Union High School District were adopted Monday night by the Board of Trustees.

The board's meeting occurred only a few hours after the teachers voted to postpone a strike vote until Thursday.

A strike would affect more than 7,600 high school students in Pacifica, Daly City, western San Bruno and Brisbane. Six schools, including a continuation high school, are involved.

Marcy Dunne Ballard, president of American Federation of Teachers Local 1481, said the strike vote will be held if negotiations are not concluded and agreement is not reached by Thursday.

Supt. Floyd Gonella pointed out that the emergency provisions will be enacted only if the district's 500 teachers vote to strike.

After five months of negotiations, the district's bargaining team declared an impasse in its negotiations with the AFT last month.

A state mediator, William Hehir, has been called in on the contract talks.

Hehir attended an eight-hour session with the two parties on Sunday.

Uncertain early Monday if the AFT would vote to strike, the trustees proceeded with their scheduled evening meeting at Terra Nova High School in Pacifica.

In a brief meeting, the board adopted five resolutions.

The board authorized the district administration, if a strike is approved by the AFT, to employ substitute teachers at $65 a day — $31 more than they normally receive.

Trustees also gave Gonella the authority to hire temporary employes at rates now in effect for regular employes. Under normal circumstances, such appointments are approved by the board.

If a strike occurs, teachers will be immediately required to submit a signed affidavit of illness and provide a doctor's certification to obtain a legal sick leave. Gonella said in normal working conditions, such a note is required only after five days of illness.

Employes also will be required to request a personal necessity leave in advance and in writing. During a strike, such leaves will be permitted only for "emergency reasons."

The board also tightened its policy on "unauthorized leaves" to include collective refusal to provide service, unauthorized use of sick leave or other leave benefits, and failure to attend required meetings or to supervise school-sponsored activities.

Unauthorized leaves would, the board voted, constitute a breach of contract and might result in dismissal procedures or loss of salary.

In a final resolution, the board granted Gonella or his designee the authority to close any school facility "when the health or safety of student or staff is in jeopardy."

Gonella said the increased pay for substitutes was required "because of the trouble of getting substitutes to come in during a difficult situation."

He said the resolutions were written by the District Attorney's office and by the Association of California School Employes.

The superintendent said he hopes that Monday night's meeting will turn out to have been unnecessary.

In fact, he said, the district's bargaining team will probably have a new proposal for the teachers today. Trustees were to learn about the recommendations in an executive session Monday evening. Gonella declined to discuss them.

He expressed hope that a contract — the district's first under new public education collective bargaining laws — would be completed before Thursday's scheduled strike vote.

"It should be noted finalization doesn't simply mean the district will give items to the teachers it should not," he said.

Gonella said it would be negligent of the district not

'Pop' Brown Made 'Fortune' at Tanforan

"George Kirchhubel has been a part of Daly City history ever since there was a Daly City," according to City Librarian Samuel Chandler.

The sometimes crusty saloon keeper, Chandler says, is perhaps the best living history source in the North County. He has a remarkable ability for recalling events and incidents. And his love of telling tales is well known.

Daly City and the North County have a past that is sometimes lurid, often puzzling, but never dull.

Beginning with this column, we'll offer a few of Kirchhubel's recollections of the past, giving the reader a chance to better understand the community through the eyes of a man who has witnessed history's changes since the turn of the century.

By GEORGE KIRCHHUBEL
as told to Frank LaPierre
Staff Writer

I buried Joe "Pop" Brown in 1958 at Cypress Lawn Cemetery in Colma. He was 93 years old and one helluva man.

It was back in the early thirties, in the Big Depression, that I met Pop. Everybody called him "Pop," but I don't know why.

Pop was a colorful character. He knew every whistle stop along every train track in the country.

He rode the Southern Pacific rails into Daly City from Colma. As he passed the Jefferson High School he spotted a string of box cars parked on a spur track by the railroad company and he decided to set up housekeeping in one of the boxcars.

In no time at all Pop had the door of the car open and he soon had a pot-bellied stove installed and a fire glowing to take the chill away. He had to cut a hole in the top of the car to install the stove, but that didn't seem to slow him down.

Pop came into town in the company of another man I didn't know. When it came time to find something to eat, the two split up and began scouring around town for some "grub."

Always handy at fixing things and a good talker, Pop would search out a widow or "old maid" who needed the garden spaded or an appliance fixed. When it came time for his pay, Pop would say:

"Well, ma'am, if you have any groceries to spare for my stew pot that would be real fine."

Most often he would end up with some cash.

Gradually, Pop began circulating around town — away from the box car that SP seemed to have overlooked and which had become his base of local operations.

Soon his travels took him to the Top of the Hill section of Mission Street. One day he met a man named "Jerry" who owned a store on Los Olivos Avenue.

Jerry was quite a horse player and it wasn't long before the two of them would saunter on down to the Old Tanforan Race Track in San Bruno.

Of course, Pop would use Jerry's money to bet the horses, because he didn't have any of his own, to speak of.

The more winners Pop had going for him the more he bet. He had a lucky streak going for him one time and he treated all the kids in the neighborhood to ice cream at the Relish Bakery on Mission Street. He'd get a roll of nickles and pass them out to the kids, who would grab the coins and run into the bakery for an ice cream cone.

One day, Pop decided to go to Tanforan and he caught the San Mateo car (line 40), jumping off the train at the rear gate to the track.

As he strolled toward the gate, Pop struck up a conversation with a stranger who talked with an accent much the same as Pop did.

The stranger was cooling down a big black horse that he had just exercised.

"Fine looking horse, you got there," Pop commented.

"None better here today," the stranger responded.

"Sure, and would this horse be running today?"

"Yes. And I'll tell you something else: put your money on Blue Law in the last race."

Cab Ordinance Change?

It was a whirlwind public session that the City Council in Daly City council held Monday night. From start to finish, it lasted just under an hour.

Although council discussions ranged over a dozen separate items — from issuance of a business license for a delicatessen at St. Francis Square to planning to negotiate new work agreements with employes — only two items appeared to draw particular attention.

The first was a suggestion by City Atty. Albert Polonsky that a stipulation forbidding women to operate taxicabs after 6 p.m. be omitted when a new taxicab ordinance is enacted. It was unanimously supported by the council.

Mayor Anthony Giammona also wants the taxi company in Daly City to maintain a cab stand in the Bayshore section of the city.

That would cut down on the waiting time for a cab, a major complaint among persons living in that section of the city, the mayor said.

The second matter brought before the council and quickly acted on was a complaint from a Parent-Teacher Association concerning noise from ice cream vending trucks operating near schools.

The PTA said the ice cream vender is creating a disturbance by playing tunes and bell tingling sounds over a loud speaker system mounted on the truck.

City Manager David Rowe was instructed to get a full report on the matter from the police department and to report back to the council.

Pop was advised to bet the horse $5 to win and $4 to place, depending on the odds, and he scurried off to get some money.

It was his friend Jerry who loaned him the $9 after he heard the story about how Pop bumped into the stranger with the black horse named Blue Law.

That afternoon Pop went back to the track clutching the $9. He went to the betting window and did exactly what the stranger had told him to do.

It was all the jockey could do to hang on to Blue Law.

The giant horse whipped around the track in near record time, besting the closest rival by at least five lengths.

Pop was speechless when he saw the payoff: 40 to 1 to win. He pocketed $300 and returned home feeling like a millionaire.It was an interesting series of events that led to Pop's big win.

He didn't know it, but by some strange "coincidence" Blue Law's trainer had borrowed a set of eye blinkers from one of John Marchbank's horse groomers on the pretext that he wanted to see if Blue Law would perform better with blinkers on.

When the official clocker spotted Blue Law with eye blinkers on, he mistook the horse for a nag called Prince Heather. No one was more surprised than the clocker to watch the big black horse pound around the mile and a quarter track in 2:07 and he noted it on the official betting sheets.

Odds on Prince Heather tumbled down, while those on Blue Law went higher and higher.

Once the trackgoers saw the official time on Prince Heather the bets were placed. It was obvious, the crowd assumed, that Prince Heather far outpaced anything at the track that day.

The results were sad.

Time has obscured what Prince Heather actually did at Tanforan Race Track that day. Suffice it, that the horse was no Secretariat. And it was Blue Law that made at least one man happy that day — Joe "Pop" Brown.

County to Revise RV Parking Ruling

The San Mateo County Planning Commission has ordered a redrafting of a proposed ordinance to restrict the parking of recreational vehicles in residential districts of the unincorporated areas of the county.

Scores of residents were present at the commission's meeting last week to protest a provision of the ordinance which would prohibit the parking of recreational vehicles, boats or trailers on residential property unless enclosed by a garage, carport or shed.

The ordinance would permit the parking of recreational vehicles in the open for a period not to exceed two weeks in any given year.

Faced with the protests of residents and homeowner groups, the commission ordered that the proposed ordinance be redrafted to give it more flexibility. A hearing on the revised ordinance was scheduled for the commission's April 27 meeting.

Pacifica Planner Resigns

The chairwoman of the Pacifica Planning Commission, Ellie McGuire, Monday night announced her resignation.

A legal secretary in San Francisco, Mrs. McGuire said she will leave her job and home in Pacifica and move to Auburn.

Bus Crash

Nine passengers and the driver of a San Mateo Union High School bus escaped injury Monday afternoon in a collision with a pickup truck on El Camino Real at Oak Grove Avenue in Burlingame, the California Highway Patrol reported this morning.

Home Saved

Curtis Castillo of Daly City is 11 years old and knows all about conservation, especially conserving water.

And he does more than talk about it — he acts.

The other day, young Curtis was walking to school when he noticed a torrent of water running out of a house near the John F. Kennedy School.

He reported the fact to school secretary Corinne Andrus, who took Curtis in her car back along his route in an effort to find the house.

A few blocks away, Curtis and Ms. Andrus located the home and knocked on the door. No one answered.

A city water crew was called to the scene and the water cut off at a main valve outside the home.

Teachers

to be prepared if a strike occurred.

The resolutions, Board President Ruth Boudinot said, should "not be construed as a negative standpoint on the part of the board."

Mrs. Ballard said more than 350 teachers met at Serramonte High School Monday afternoon. The vote to consider a strike on Thursday was unanimous, she said.

The AFT bargaining team, she added, had recommended a delay.

Some teachers established an informational picket line at the district administration office in the Westlake Shopping Center in Daly City early Monday.

Anti-Crime Unit Funded by DC

The recommendations for funding various projects under the Federal Housing and Community Development Act offered by City Manager David Rowe of Daly City received few plaudits from the audience at a regular council meeting on Feb. 28.

James Valentine, director of the Guadalupe Health Center at 75 Wellington St. in Daly City, had asked for some $90,000.

This year, with expanded services, more people could be treated, Valentine told the council.

In the past, the city has been the center's main supporter, the director explained.

In fact, the center is located in the old City Hall and uses the facility under an agreement with the city.

Funds are quickly drying up, Valentine said.

The director only recently returned from Washington, D.C., where he met with Health, Education and Welfare officials and was told no monies were available.

Valentine speculated the center might get some $134,000 to be used locally to take up the slack in medical services created by the closure.

But Conrad Pavellas of the Original Daly City Protective Association, who has been active in a movement to keep Chope open, predicted the mid-Peninsula hospital would not be closed.

Pavellas, on the other hand, urged the city to make some monetary contribution "no matter how small" to Guadalupe as a way for the city to show the county it supports the center.

Rowe said the center has never been funded with FHCD money.

The city manager informed Julius Castellan, who asked the council to consider allocating $2,300 to the senior citizens lunch program, that the program did not qualify under the FHCD act, but did qualify under Federal Revenue Sharing, a different program.

Rowe's recomendations for funding projects covered the 1977-78 fiscal year, and included projections for possible funding in the two subsequent years.

The city manager asked that after the council hear the public's views on the recommendations that the package be sent to the Planning Commission for their review and recommendations.

Although several categories received dramatic cuts in allocation of the funds, one new program was backed by the council with money and words of praise.

Called the "Anti-Crime League," the group is a conglomeration of all the city's neighborhood associations. It emphasizes banding together to fight crime in the city.

DC Child Service Funding Halted

By FRANK LaPIERRE

Future funding of the Daly City Community for Children's Services has been stopped pending an audit and evaluation of the corporation's operations.

Steve Graham of the San Mateo County Community Planning office said that except in severe cases "the county usually does not stop funding to look at a program."

What has happened to the Daly City day care program since its inception some 20 months ago has shocked segments of the community.

Parents of children attending the center have expressed bewilderment over the ouster of Ann Cooper as a director of the center last month and the appointment of Rhina Gonzalez as the center's acting director, pending appointment of a replacement.

Mrs. Gonzalez' husband, Nemer J. Gonzalez, is vice president of the governing board of the private non-profit organization.

The center, although it is a private corporation which elects its own directors and does its own hiring and firing, is funded primarily by government grants — money from city, county, state and federal funds.

Another rumble stems from the fact that not only is the Rev. Raymond Howard chairman of the board, but his wife, Dorothy, and daughter, Sylvia Norman, are directors.

To date, Daly City has put some $135,000, including Comprehensive Employment Training Act (CETA) funds, into the center.

City Manager David Rowe supports the center's work with children, pointing out that a recent consultant's report disclosed the need for the facility and the work that teachers are doing with the children there.

"I don't know as we'll find anything wrong when we get the audit report," Rowe said.

Rowe agrees with Graham and the Rev. Howard that an accounting is needed to insure that government agencies are getting their money's worth out of the center.

Presently there are about 24 children at the center. They are children of low-income women who would rather work than accept welfare.

Graham said no one, however, seems to know exactly how many children have been assisted by the three programs now in effect in Daly City.

The programs are:

Care of preschool children whose mothers work;

Extended day care for those school age children whose mother works; and a voucher payment program to private homes, where up to six children are cared for while the mothers are away at work.

"We are convinced that more community-based child care is needed in Daly City. We have to do everything we can to see that it is provided," Graham said.

The county, on the other hand, is not satisfied with the center's administrative abilities, Graham said.

Graham said he is now checking to see if the center has met its contractural obligations with the county.

"We are now jointly conducting an evaluation of this day care operation with Daly City," he said.

Rowe did not support the mission of the center when it was first proposed about three years ago. The city manager's initial recommendation then was that the council not get involved with the undertaking.

He later changed that stand to include support for building and certain operating costs, but not to funding administrator salaries.

In December the center's management asked for funding from the Housing and Community Development Act money in the amount of $122,000.

Rowe chopped this figure to $22,600.

In addition, some $57,000 in revenue-sharing money for capitol outlay projects and operating expenses from the city was requested.

Graham said the center also has requested that the county fund five CETA jobs at the center.

Howard is optimistic that the "outside" audit report, expected around the end of this month, will not disclose any great irregularities.

"These (audit reports) are usual procedure," he said. "Everything is going along just fine at the center."

Following the allocation of funds to an agency, an accounting by the government is usually required before new money is allocated, the Rev. Howard said.

He also said he thinks the charges of "nepotism", because his wife and daughter are on the board are "vague and improper."

"Everyone is voted onto the board of directors. It would be unconstitutional if we prohibited people from exercising this right," the Rev. Howard explained. "We hope to iron this out soon."

Passover Is Discussed

Congregation B'nai Israel, 1575 Annie St., Daly City, announces a Passover Institute to be held in the Temple House on March 15 and 22, from 8 to 9:30 p.m.

Rabbi Ira Book will lead the discussions on both Tuesdays. The first session will feature how to conduct a Passover Sedar; the second meeting will discuss the historical aspect.

Rabbi Book extends an invitation to members, their friends and guests to attend. Reservations should be made with chairpersons Rachel Krug, 993-6535, Marlene Dickerman, 992-3963, or the synagogue office, 756-5430.

Notice

Messages concerning distribution or delivery of the North County Post should be telephoned between 8:30 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. (589-1234) or sent in writing to the North County Post, 205 W. Angus Ave., San Bruno, Ca. 94066.

THE GOURMET By Petrini's Presents

Corned Beef—O'Reilly

Very Simple to Prepare—

Place a 5 to 6 lb. piece of Brisket or Bottom Round Corned Beef into a large kettle of cold water (enough to cover meat). Add one medium size onion stuck with 6 cloves, a bay leaf, 2 cloves of garlic, a sprig of parsley and a stalk of celery. Bring meat to a boil. Lower heat, cover and let simmer approx. 3½ hours. Serve meat cut in thin slices with steamed buttered cabbage, turnips, carrots and onions.

Variation: Cook meat same as above but only for 2 hours, remove meat, drain and place in a baking pan in 350 degree oven. Make a mixture of brown sugar and mustard, baste Corned Beef frequently with this mixture while baking. Bake approximately 1½ hours and serve.

TOP NOTCH SPEAKERS

Seniors Regroup

Lorianne Heath

Mrs. Ernestine Vetter, club publicity chairman, wants to remind members of the Westlake Senior Citizens Club that the club will resume meeting in the basement of the Our Lady of Mercy Parish School today.

The gathering will deal with plans for the spring calendar.

ALL YOU NIMBLE-FINGERED Friends of the Library will want to be in the Westlake Library on Friday to help Mrs. Emmett Tierney and the members of the bookmark workshop turn out those clever bookmarks that will be sold at the book fair in May.

Mrs. Tierney has designed a new clown pattern to join the growing family of quaint characters with which to decorate your reading material.

If you would like to join the bookmark creators, call Mrs. Tierney to let her know you are coming, then collect scissors and white glue and come down and join the fun.

NEW MEMBERS of Mary's Help Hospital Guild's nominating committee are Mrs. Marie Sherrill, Mrs. Phyllis Ryan, Mrs. Helen Vollert, Mrs. Myrtle Peck and Mrs. Winnie Shoub. Alternates are Mrs. Barbara Cardinalli, and Mrs. Shirley Zavitka. The committee was elected at the general guild meeting held in February.

THE EDUCATION DEPARTMENT OF St. Andrew's Congregation, in conjunction with the "Fashions to Go" people, will present a fashion show and luncheon called "A Touch of Class" on Saturday, March 26, at noon in the St. Andrew's Community Center on Southgate Avenue in the St. Francis Heights section of Daly City.

Sister Irmalyn Benkert, Mrs. Rosemarie Rodriquez and Mrs. Barbara Bruno are coordinating the event. They will be happy to make arrangements for your tickets if you will phone the church office, 756-3223. Cost per person is $5, according to Mrs. Ann Thies, publicity chairman.

ONE LAST REMINDER about the League of Women Voters of North San Mateo County Rummage Sale coming up this weekend: Mrs. Troy Daniels, president of the unit, reports that the members have assembled, among other things, a wide selection of old bottles.

The sale will be in the OICW Training Center, 217 E. Grand Avenue in South San Francisco on Saturday and Sunday between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Donations of quality used or new items are still being sought. For information call Mrs. Don Fleming of Daly City or Mrs. George Avanssian of South San Francisco.

KATHERINE AND FRANK McDermott have been named "Sweethearts of 1977' by the members of the Daly City Senior Citizens group. The McDermotts, who have been married for 53 years, were presented with a heart-shaped cake and a box of candy during the special program. The Senior's choral group then serenaded them with old time Sweetheart songs.

Mrs. McDermott is a charter member of the club and Mr. McDermott has been a faithful member since his retirement. They have two children and four grandchildren.

SMILING HAPPILY and proud are the members of the Our Lady of Mercy forensic team. They garnered first place in the St. Ignatius High School Speech Contest held in February.

The students, under the direction of teacher Barbara Thomas, participated in the contest along with students from 17 other schools.

Those winning honors included Kelly McDonald, Mark Loughran, Mike Ghiselli, Ted Curry, Jim Kennedy, Cathy Gibney, Connie Kilpatrick, Judy Pardini, Ann Cooney, Tom Feeney, Jim McCann and Cathy Jackanich.

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO'S Louise Enberg, director of the local Friends Outside reports that the unit's food cupboard is bare. A real need exists for canned goods and packaged foods that do not require special handling.

The approach of Easter is straining the resources of the group, which is dedicated to the aid of families of men and women in prison.

If you are interested in contributing to the food pantry, contact Mrs. Enberg or drop items off in the Friends Outside Center, located at 136 Church St. in San Francisco.

B'nai Israel Announces Services for Weekend

Sabbath Services will be observed in the Sanctuary of Congregation B'nai Israel, 1575 Annie St., Daly City, on March 11 at 8:30 p.m. Services will be conducted by Rabbi Ira Book, assisted by Guest Cantor Salo Blumenthal, who will chant the liturgy.

One of the highlights of the evening will be the performance by the choir, led by Mr. Richard Altman, choir director and organist.

During the service, Robert Bilick, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Bilick, will be called to the pulpit to chant the Kiddush (wine blessing) in honor of his Bar-Mitzvah. He will be a candidate for Bar-Mitzvah on March 12. Mrs. Bilick will recite the Blessing for the Sabbath Candles at the beginning of services and Robert will be escorted to the pulpit by both of his parents. His two older brothers, Stuart and Michael, will also participate in the service.

The dedication of a memorial plaque to Nathan Sapiro, father of Mrs. Pauline Smith, is also scheduled for the service.

At the conclusion of services, an Oneg Shabbat (social hour) will follow, hosted by Mr. and Mrs. George Bilick in honor of their son's Bar-Mitzvah.

On March 12 at 10 a.m., Robert Bilick will observe his Bar-Mitzvah. Services for this Shabbat morning will be conducted by Rabbi Ira Book in the Sanctuary of Congregation B'nai Israel.

Freight Shipping Course Offered

The Westmoor Adult School, 131 Westmoor Ave., Daly City, will offer a course in freight shipping supervision via common and contract carriers on Tuesdays from 7 to 9:45 p.m. starting March 15.

The course will cover such topics as freight claims, bill of lading rules and preparation, freight classification, California freight rates, small shipment service, minimum charges, pool shipments, split delivery, split pick up, volume incentive shipments, rail head rates, and piggyback.

The aim of the course is to update the former transportation student and give the beginning student a better understanding of transportation with a strong emphasis on how to lower shipping charges.

Those interested should attend the first session in room 25 on March 15. Registration will be open until March 29. The registration fee is $2.00.

Confirmation Class Dinner Scheduled

A "Bid & Buy Dinner" will be held by the confirmation class of Temple Beth Israle Judea on Sunday March 20 at the Temple on Brotherhood Way, San Francisco. All members of the community are invited to attend. Donation will be $2 for adults and $1 for those under 18 years of age.

The Confirmation Class needs donations that can be auctioned at this event. If you have a gift, call Marilyn Levene at 992-6364 or Faye Silverman at 756-5344. These ladies should also be contacted for reservations for the dinner.

Temple Presents Sabbath Musical

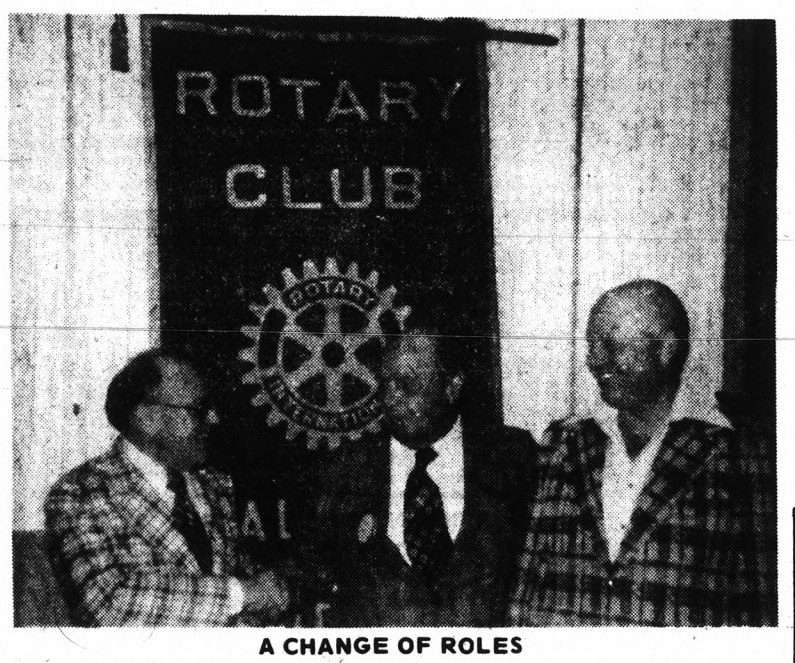
On March 18 at 8:30 p.m., Congregation Beth Israel Judea of San Francisco invites the community to attend a Jewish sabbath musical. Officiating on this Friday evening will be Rabbi Herbert Morris and Cantor Henry Greenberg. The organist will be Dr. W. Leonard Beck.

On this special evening, Congregation Beth Israel Judea will resound with the special music of the Jews — Yiddish, Hebrew, Ladino and Chassidic. The voices of the Beth Israel Judea Choral Group will be heard, instrumentalists will play, and the Beth Israel Judea Dance Group will perform.

An Oneg Shabbat sponsored by the Sisterhood of the Temple will directly follow the services.

Notice

Messages concerning distribution or delivery of the North County Post should be telephoned between 8:30 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. (589-1234) or sent in writing to the North County Post, 205 W. Angus Ave., San Bruno, Ca. 94066.



A CHANGE OF ROLES

Judge Talks to Club

When Judge Frank Blum, Sr., recently spoke to the Rotary Club of Daly City, he spoke of the difficulty in changing from his role as an impartial judge to the role of an attorney-advocate who presents one client's point of view to the court.

Judge Blum was formerly the local district attorney, then municipal judge of the North County area. He was a judge of the Superior Court until recently, when he retired to do local attorney work.

He remembered earlier days when a criminal court case took an average of one and one-half days of time. Now such cases take three to four days. There was no plea bargaining in previous years; now there is plea bargaining.

He said that the courts and judges are not weak in their decisions; they are only weakened by the laws of today. He praised the capability and fairness of the private defenders, service which gives excellent legal service and also gave similar praise for the court appointed defenders.

The local Rotary Club of forty-eight business and professional men meets Wednesday noons at Bianchini's at the Skyline Shopping Center. Dave Macabee is the President and Herbert Tweedie is chairman for Rotary Publicity.

BALLET AND TAP LESSONS OFFERED

Showing off their tap shoes at a dance lesson given by the Daly City Recreation Department are, from left, Marie Isely, Fern Riley, Diane Roberts, Donna Jensen and Marion Langberg. The department is offering ballet and tap lessons from March 28 through May 23 at a cost of $5 for residents and $7.50 for non-residents. Advance registration is required. For information, call 992-5356.

Analyzer Speaks to DC AARP

Sister Cecilia Cronin, a Catholic nun of Holy Angels Church, is a certified handiting analyst who is presently teaching adult education classes in graphoanalysis at Westmoor and South San Francisco high schools.

Members may bring bag lunches and coffee and cake will be available at a small charge.

COMMENDED BY COUNCIL

Civic leader Frank Spadarella admires Daly City Council resolution with his wife, Ida, at City Hall recently. Spadarella was praised for his many contributions to the city over the years and his work on various civic organizations. The well-known photographer-restaurateur recently donated a number of photography masterworks to the city for display. The works had been collected by Spadarella over the years.

DC Recreation Offers Tap Dancing Lessons

Classes in yoga and tap dancing are among those offered by the Daly City Recreation Department this spring.

The "Cha Cha, Swing and Latin Favorite" will be instructed by Mrs. Gene Evans on Tuesdays from March 29 through May 31. Beginners start at 7:30 p.m.; advanced dancers begin at 8:30 p.m. The cost of the 10-week program is $10 for resident couples and $15 for non-resident couples.

"Ballet for Exercise" is offered on Mondays, from 1 to 2 p.m., March 28 through May 23 at Westlake Park Clubhouse, 149 Lake Merced Blvd. On Thursdays, from 7 to 8 p.m., the class is offered at Westmoor Park Clubhouse, 123 Edgemont Drive, from March 17 through May 12.

Basic and advanced tap dancing will be taught by the same instructor, Miss Diane Roberts, on Mondays from 2 to 3 p.m. at the Westlake Park Clubhouse, March 28 through May 23 and on Thursdays from 8 to 9 p.m. at the Westmoor Park Clubhouse.

Fee for either ballet or tap dancing lessons is $5 for residents and $7.50 for non-residents.

Hatha yoga will be offered March 29 through May 31 at Westmoor Park Clubhouse on Tuesdays from 7:30 to 9 p.m., taught by Miss Leonila Ramirez. The cost is $7.50 for residents and $11.25 for non-residents.

Advanced registration is required for all classes. To register, send name, address (including city and zip code), daytime phone and correct fee to the Daly City Recreation Department, 134 Hillside Blvd., Daly City, Calif. 94014, prior to the first class. Be sure to note program and class. Checks are payable to: Daly City Recreation Dept. All registration is on a first come-first served basis. Refunds will not be made after the first class session.

For further information, call 992-5356.

Firm to Redesign Plant

A Burlingame engineering firm has been selected, at a fee of $535,000, to design improvements to the North County Solids Waste Management facilities.

The South San Francisco City Council, the lead agency in the project, accepted a recommendation on March 2 to hire Reta/Nolte and Associates.

The selection must be approved this month by the other agencies involved in the complex sludge disposal program — Burlingame, San Bruno, Millbrae and San Francisco Internationa Airport.

The designs developed by Reta/Nolte are to lead to a $6.7 million worth of improvements at the facility located in South San Francisco near the United Airlines Maintenance Base.

The construction will be the result of more than two years of intense study and planning by the agencies involved.

When completed, the project will alleviate serious disposal problems confronting the various cities. Burlingame and Millbrae will soon lose their landfill sites and South San Francisco is facing continued violations of water quality regulations at its treatment plant, according to Director of Public Services Frank Addiego.

A technical committee composed of engineers from the five agencies met Tuesday with the five top firms from 14 applications that were submitted, Addiego said.

Reta/Nolte submitted the lowest fee proposal and met other specifications of the work that must be done, Addiego said.

Other fee proposals were as high as $760,000.

Addiego stressed that the fees are not formal bids and that the firm must submit the official fee to the city after all agencies have approved the selection.

However, Addiego became alarmed March 2 when it appeared the South San Francisco City Council might postpone its approval until later in the month.

Councilmen were concerned when a representative for one of the other top five firms, Trotter-Yoder of Lafayette, said that company was ready to submit a lower fee proposal than it had submitted on Tuesday.

The firm had said the project would cost about $557,000.

Hearing that, Mayor Leo Padreddii asked if the decision could be delayed to allow the technical committee to meet again with the second firm.

Padreddii pointed out that Trotter-Yoder has a locally based firm employing local engineers.

He suggested putting off a decision until other agencies involved make their decisions, even though South San Francisco is the lead agency for the project.

Addiego, however, said he would wash his hands of the entire sludge program if the city fails to meet deadlines and takes the risk of losing state funding.

Plans must be submitted to the state for approval by Aug. 15, he said. Putting off the selection might not give the engineering firm time to prepare those plans and still meet the deadline.

"I won't take the responsibility if we go past the deadline and we lose the funding for this, and I mean it," Addiego said.

If that city is going to give one firm extra time, then all firms involved must be given that opportunity, he added.

"Already we've lost two months because of the proposal process," Addiego pointed out.

He told the councilmen that they must rely on their staff to make the right decision. All the committee members, he said, were professional engineers.

"We evaluated all those factors in detail," he said. "It's our opinion. You don't have to take it."

The Environmental Protection Agency plans to pay for 75 per cent of the project and the state will contribute 12½ per cent. The agencies involved will pay the remaining 12½ per cent.

However, Addiego explained, if the state funding were lost, local cities and the airport taxpayers would have to pay 25 per cent.

The council promptly approved hiring the recommended firm and sent its vote to the other agencies.

The cost to South San Francisco taxpayers for the design and construction of the project, Addiego said, will be about $435,000.

Sex Crime Suspect Held

A Daly City man has been charged with multiple counts of child molestation, including kidnap, assault and sodomy, and is being held in the San Francisco Jail in lieu of $100,000 bail.

Daly City and San Francisco police arrested Melvin Horton Harris, 28, 145 Longview Drive, at his home Wednesday and booked him into the Daly City Jail.

Shortly after his incarceration, Harris reportedly suffered an unknown seizure and was transported to San Francisco General Hospital for observation.

Alcoholic Program Saves $1 Million

By LIN DAY

Well over a million dollars has been saved San Mateo County taxpayers by Project 90, the alcoholic rehabilitation program begun in San Mateo four years ago, according to its director, James O'Toole.

O'Toole, who is seeking a $65,000 budget approval from the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors for Project 90's fourth year, presented figures compiled by the project's assistant director, Keith R. McCarthy.

Prior cost to government, including time in jail, arrests, hospitalization and previous rehabilitation procedures, totaled $1,380,645, the figures indicate.

Since Project 90 treatment, however, the patients' cost to local government totals only $14,080, according to McCarthy's data.

O'Toole, estimating the total number served to date by Project 90 as 425, says that the recidivism has been unusually low, and that the project is estimated as 58 per cent effective with alcoholics — a rate far higher than normally shown.

"We are on the low side of the curve all across the state," O'Toole said.

The program, which provides a social setting and environmental therapy, utilizes a motel-hotel on the east side of Bayshore Freeway to house the men in the project, four to a room, and one or more sessions of therapy, self-evaluation and counseling daily at the Project 90 Center, 33 N. B St., San Mateo.

The county contributes $5.50 a day per man, and other costs are paid out of welfare, disability or other available income the men have. Rental to the men is $63 per month.

McCarthy's figures for those entering the project:

Arrests, 440; times in jail, 269; days in jail, 26,307; times in hospital, 171; days in hospital, 2,824; expense for days in jail at $35 per day, $920,745; expense for days in hospital at $125 a day, $352,900.

Times in rehabs, 104; days in rehabs, 5,350, with expense for days in rehabs, at $20 per day, $107,000.

This totals $1,380,645, McCarthy said.

By contrast, the figures Project 90 supplies for incidents and cost to society after its "graduates" leave:

Arrests, 6; times in jail, 5; days in jail, 94, expense of days in jail at $35 per day, $3,290.

Times in hospital, 9; days in hospital, 66; expense for days in hospital, at $125 per day, $8,250.

Times in rehabs, 8; days in rehabs, 127; expense for days in rehabs at $20 per day, $2,540. These figures totaled $14,080.

Project 90 computes the ratio of expense to society before and after its treatment at 91.96 to 1. It estimates average sobriety time since the departure of the men from Project 90 as 595 months, for an average per man of 13 months' sobriety.

RECOGNITION FOR SERVING CHILDREN

Monte Carlo Night Funds Scholarships

Congregation B'nai Israel announces Monte Carlo Night, which will take place on March 19 from 8 p.m. to midnight in the Temple House located at 1575 Annie St., Daly City.

In addition to games there will be prizes, plus snacks and light refreshments. Donation is $2.50 per person. All proceeds will be ear-marked for the Donna Sublow Fund, which is a scholarship to send deserving children to camp.

The congregation cordially invites members, their friends and the community at large to attend this fun evening.

For further information, call Roni Miller at 994-2527 or Mary Ann Mordokowicz at 755-9769.

Navy Mess Management Specialist First Class Jose L. Abobo, son of Quinciano Abobo of 240 E. Market St., Daly City, is participating in the major allied exercise "Rimpac '77."

He is serving as a crewmember aboard the guided missile cruiser USS Jouett, homeported in San Diego.

Abobo joined the Navy in February 1966.

Selected

Cadet Fourth Class Steven M. Omoto, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Omoto of 237 Avalon Drive, Daly City, was selected for the Superintendent's List at the United States Coast Guard Academy, New London, Conn.

A 1976 graduate of Westmoor High School, he joined the Coast Guard in July 1976.

SELECTED

Airman Wendell S. Miura, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Miura of 49 Crestline Ave., Daly City, has been selected for technical training at Chanute AFB, Ill., in the Air Force aircraft maintenance field. The airman recently completed basic training at Lackland AFB, Tex. Airman Miura is a 1976 graduate of Westmoor High School.

PAPA PINS PAL

Steve Lowe's best friend is his dad, he says. When Steve was appointed a lieutenant in the U.S. Army back in 1967, his father, Col. Howard Lowe (USA-Retired) pinned on the gold bars. Naturally, it was Col. Lowe who again pinned on the bars when his son was promoted to lieutenant in the Daly City Police Department last week. Col. Lowe is a patient at Letterman General Hospital in San Francisco.

CAPTAIN GUZMAN

Lois Guzman admires her husband's new captain bars. Lt. Edward Guzman was promoted to captain last week — the Daly City Police Department's first captain since the retirement of Capt. John Walsh three years ago. The department has three captains authorized. Capt. Bill Beard, assigned to the Broadmoor District beat, is a temporary captain under an agreement between the Broadmoor Police District and Daly City. Beard was the district's police chief.

GIRL SCOUTING

INTERNATIONAL DAY participation signups are now being taken for Daly City Area Girl Scout troops by special events chairman Mrs. Carmen Fry (756-5731).

The city-wide event, scheduled for March 13 at Westlake Community Center and Braham Lincoln School, will feature Girl Scouts celebrating their ethnic heritage.

This event is a product of the Jefferson Elementary Schools, and is chaired by Marie Luna. Girl Scout participation is actively sought.

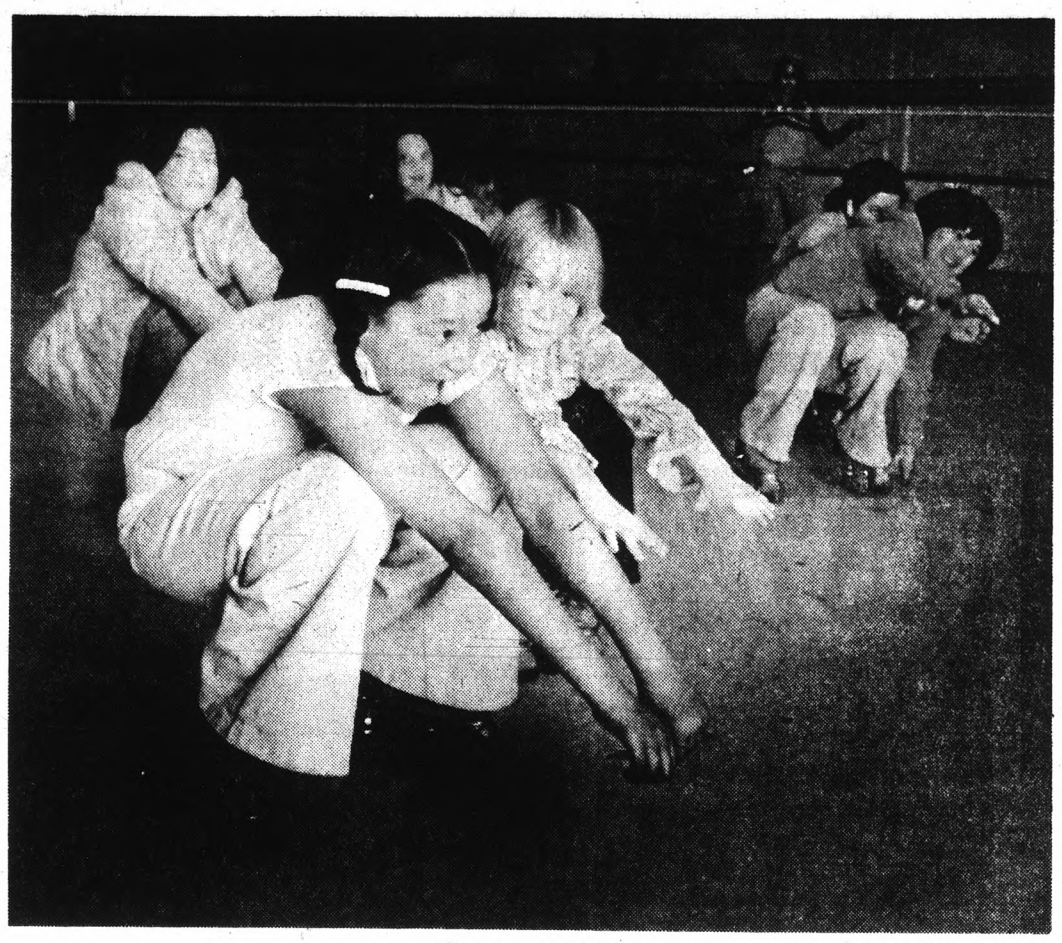
New games coordinated by Girl Scout professionals will be included in the day-long celebration of childhood and family.

THE INTERNATIONAL DRAWING and painting Competition of the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts, with a mid-August deadline, invites any local Brownies and Girl Scouts to submit entries.

The contest is open to all Girl Scouts aged six to 17. Drawings or paintings, not to exceed 8 inches by 12 inches, should illustrate ways and means of promoting fund-raising campaign for the Thinking Day Fund.

The Juliette Low World Friendship Fund celebrates its fiftieth anniversary with this competition designed to promote Girl Guide-Girl Scout friendship, and unity and understanding.

More information is available from local leaders.



ROLLER DERBY

Girl Scouts from Troop 715 of Daly City are actively working on their skating badges at Yankee Doodle Roller Skating Rink in Burlingame under instructor Linda Pace.

Mayor Greets DC Jay Cee's

Mayor Anthony A. Giammona proclaimed that the Daly City Jay Cee's are officially welcomed by the city to join the many civic organizations already serving Daly City.

The Jay Cee's had their first meeting on Feb. 3, when they stated their goals as helping to improve and develop the local community, aiding individual development and growth of each member, providing a new source of civic leadership and having a voice in civic affairs.

The group meets every Tuesday at the Piccolo Restaurant in St. Francis Square, Daly City. Men between the ages of 21 and 35 are invited to submit applications for membership.

Vincent Amado is the current president, Oscar Villanueva is the lieutenant governor of District 3, and Mario Barringan is state director.

Card Party For Israel

The Sisterhood of Beth Israel Judea will hold their annual card party and luncheon for the benefit of Israel on March 22 at 11:30 a.m. in Fellowship Hall, San Francisco. A buffet luncheon will be prepared by the ladies of the Sisterhood. An afternoon of card games such as bridge, mah jong and many others will follow the luncheon.

Donation will be $3 per person, with all proceeds going to Israel. Reservations must be made with Mrs. Polly Owen at 664-8546.

48 County Prisoners Moved to New Facility

Forty-eight San Mateo County jail prisoners have been transferred to the recently-reopened medium security facility adjacent to the Honor Camp near La Honda Sheriff John R. McDonald said the transfers, to alleviate overcrowding at the county jail in Redwood City, began Wednesday.

McDonald received the approval of the Board of Supervisors to reopen the facility, which had been closed for five years, after citing overcrowding conditions. He said there have been as many as 308 prisoners in the jail which is rated for 187 inmates.

The sheriff reported that the jail population Friday morning was 248 inmates. His staff is continuing to screen prisoners for transfer.

Medical Scholarship Honors Young Woman

A medical scholarship program has been established by a Daly City mother in memory of her daughter killed in an accident before she could complete medical school.

Catherine A. Smallwood, prominent Daly City civic leader and associate coordinator of the Commission on the Status of Women, announced today the Cindy Smallwood Medical Assistance Foundation will make $500 scholarships available to persons desiring to enter medical school.

Cindy was 19 years old when she was fatally injured in a traffic accident in 1973. She had planned to be a doctor, her mother said.

Persons with low incomes, especially minority women, will be given preference in receiving the scholarship grants, Mrs. Smallwood said.

While the program is directed at women, men also will be eligible, Mrs. Smallwood added.

Scholarship applications and information are available from the Cindy Smallwood Medical Assistance Foundation, P.O. Box 243, Vista Grande Station, Daly City 94016.

St. Andrew's Hosts St. Patrick's Fete

St. Andrew's Catholic Community Center is hosting a St. Patrick's dinner dance on March 19 at 7:30 p.m. at the center, corner of Southgage and Sullivan, Daly City.

Tickets costing $7.50 may be obtained at the church office or by calling Don Bunch at 878-4913.

The program will include food cooked by an Irishman, Mike Sugrue, entertainment by Al Baccoi, and decorations by Bernice Greenblat and Trina Coniglio.

Boy Injured

A 13-year-old Burlingame boy who fell from a balcony at his home suffered head injuries Friday afternoon and was taken to Mills Hospital.

Reported in stable condition today at Mills Memorial Hospital and to leave the intensive care unit was Skene Kemp, 13, of 518 Rollins Road, Burlingame.

Le Pacini

WHEN I WROTE RECENTLY that USF was going through the Winner Syndrome — that being the condition whereby you can do no right until you finally lose — I should have included Don coach Bob Gaillard in the essay.

It is amazing how nobody loves a winner. Even his lovers. After the Dons had edged Portland, 95-92, in their last WCAC game of the year, I stood toe-to-toe at mid-court with two USF rooters arguing the merits of Gaillard. Their considered opinion was that he isn't a good coach, and I'm putting it in the mildest terms.

What's wrong with Gaillard? He has no discipline. His players run the team. He's lost control. He isn't even a good floor strategist. He doesn't know how to teach defense. He makes substitutions poorly. That he has no discipline is the most common and vehement charge. And running hand-in-hand with that charge is the generalization that any coach could win with a team of such raw talent. Just throw the ball out and let them play.

THOSE ARGUMENTS are so assailable it's not even much fun to answer them. Most obviously, how can you argue with success? How bad a coach can you be with an undefeated team rated number one nationally? Short of committing murder or high felony to do it, winning should be the only criterion for success in high pressure, national sports enterprises.

But let's say that Gaillard is guilty of all of the above short comings, or even just a few of them. So he couldn't win with all of that raw talent. So there may be 1,000 coaches in the country as good as he is and 100 who are better. But name half a dozen coaches in the country who could have recruited such awesome talents as Bill Cartwright, James Hardy and Winford Boynes. That's the name of the game in any college sport, and that's what head coaches generally get paid for. Assistant coaches can handle the heady technical stuff. But how many head coaches could have lured such starts to a relatively dreary, low paying place as the Hilltop?

Let's consider the charge of Gaillard's "lack of discipline." It's an endemic argument in sports that coaches must go with what they've got, that they either adjust to their talent, or adjust the talent to their style. This group of Dons is loaded with independent individuals who have sensitive psyches. Now, you can take your choice. Either it was a coincidence that Gaillard happened to come up with a batch of this type, or his personality delivered such a batch.

THE POINT IN THIS. Reverse the "lack of discipline" argument and ask yourself if this team of individuals could win with a coach demanding rigid discipline. I doubt it. Such a type would drive them away, or within themselves.

This is a new world, especially in athletics. Kids now like to do their own thinking. I doubt that Phil Woolpert could have handled these players, just as I doubt that Gaillard would have won a national championship with the highly disciplined 1956 Dons. That team needed defense to win. This team seldom needs the tough, regimented defense that the team of 20 years ago had to have. And no coach in 1956 could have played an entire starting lineup of blacks and gotten away with it.

As they say in the cliches, it's different strokes for different folks. John McGraw and Vince Lombardi won with prison-house discipline. Connie Mack won with soft talk and high, stiff collars, and Casey Stengel won falling asleep on the bench. The Raiders win with a calculated precision organization. The A's, in their hey-day, won with virtually no organization.

But all of those teams had something in common with the Dons. They had the horses, and that, ultimately, is all that counts.

A COUPLE OF FOOTNOTES to the above.

One of the frequent charges "against" the Dons is that they have had some trouble beating mediocre teams. But what is important is that they did beat them, even if at times by only slim margins.

The test of a real champion is that he CAN come up with enough to consistently beat the also-rans, who are often harder to conquer than the quality teams simply because their mediocrity is not conducive to stirring the high-test competitive juices of fine athletes. If you don't believe this, ask yourself why so few records have been set in track and among the horse-race set without "pacers" to goose the potential record setters.

Please note how Cincinnati walloped the hell out of tail-enders and won it all, and how the Giants walloped the hell out of baseball's best teams and were murdered by the humpty-dumpties last year, and won nothing.

ANOTHER CURIOUS THING is happening to the Dons this year. It's bad enough that it took The Sporting News all season to rate them number one, in keeping with the eastern mentality which holds that nothing of quality happens in sports west of the Mississippi. Even then, it was a grudging salute with the footnote that a well coached team with a fast break will murder the Dons, who just can't be THAT good. But even the local newspapers have not really given the Dons their just due in matters of quantity of ink.

How different from 1956, when the Examiner's Bob Brachman wrote enough proud and awed words about the Dons to compensate for whatever shortcomings there may have been elsewhere, and when even Sports Illustrated — that paragon of the supported myth of Eastern sports supremacy — saw fit to cover USF weekly, and to call them the best team in the history of collegiate basketball.

MISCELLANY — Local former Mission jocks, don't forget the 28th Annual Mission High School Athletic Alumni dinner this Friday. It's at the Seven Hills Restaurant, 26 California Street, San Francisco, beginning with drinks at 7 pm and dinner at approximately 8 pm (which means about 10 pm) the price: $7, which includes tax and tip, but not damages.

Former Mission and U.C. baseball coach George Wolfman will occupy a table of honor with his 1938 championship baseball team. George will talk about the team, if he can remember it by that time, and introduce such luminaries from that era as Charlie Bates, Lou Spadia, Charlie Hansen, Roy Reitz, and Stubby Ahern.

A post-dinner raffle will be held to help build a new flagpole for the recently earthquake renovated old school.

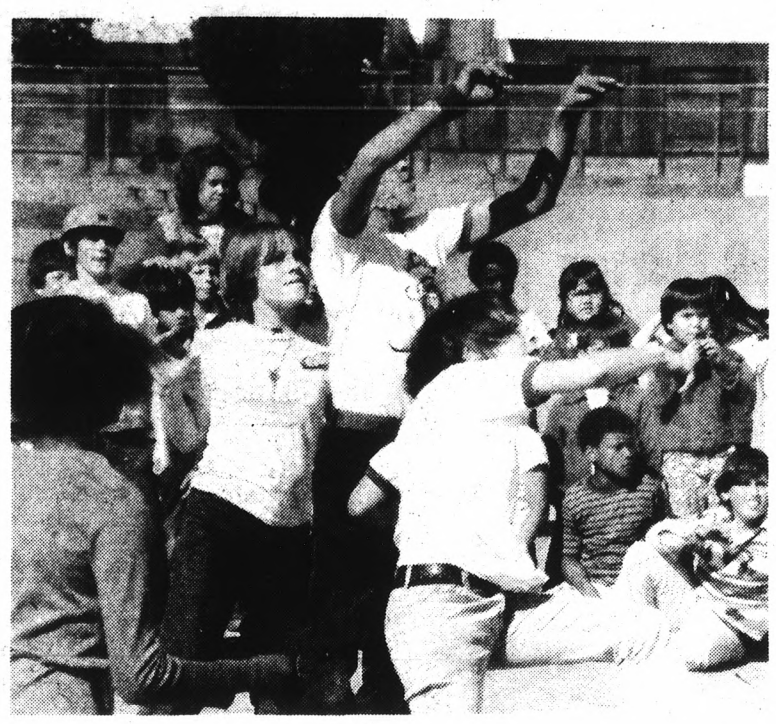
Reservations are not necessary. For further information, phone 681-0769, or George Wolfman at 863-6303.

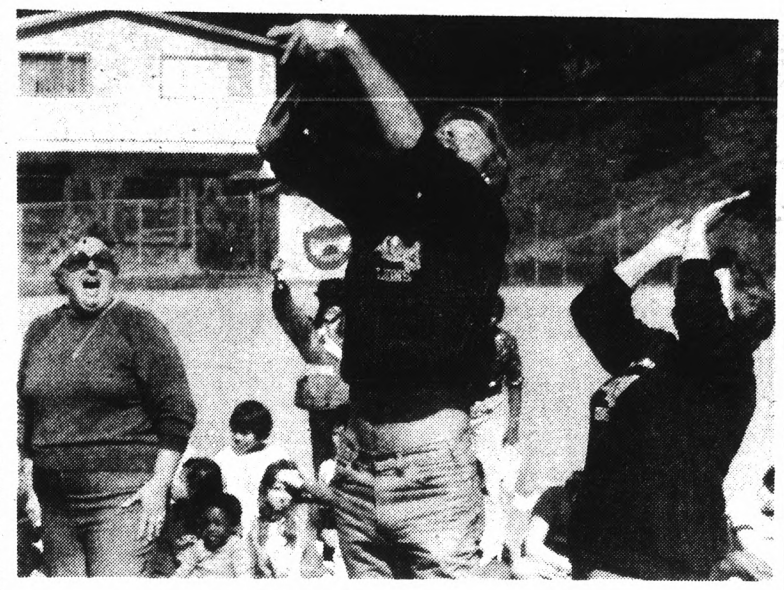
APPROPOS OF the discussions of USF, a quote from Washington State coach George Raveling, who has a winning team that, according to the press, hasn't always played well: "If we were playing in a nudist colony, then it would be important to look good."

Forty-eight minutes stats for Warrior rookie forward Sonny Parker: 21 points; 8.6 rebounds (5.2 on offense): 3.4 assists; 2.4 steals.

Saddest sports item of the year appeared in the Sporting News when evaluating pro football prospects, just days before Joe Roth died: "Joe Roth — Cancer problem relegates him this low (4th best pro prospect quarterback in nation). He's very intelligent and an exceptional pure passer."

LOCAL TAG END: St. Mary's Nick Pappageorge, just last year of Skyline College, was named to the second team All-Northern California squad.





STUDENTS TROUNCE TEACHERS

When sixth grade students and the faculty of Abraham Lincoln School in Daly City met on the volleyball court, the students were victorious. The faculty had easily won matches held the previous two years.

Boys' Basketball Playoffs

The Daly City Recreation Department's boys' basketball leagues are heading toward their conclusion with playoffs beginning in some leagues and round robin play continuing in others. This weeks results:

FOURTH GRADE Western Division — The Trojans caged the Panthers 22-12 as Dark Torres and Tony Mattei played well for the Trojans. Doing a good job for the Panthers was Arthuror Estrada. A scoreless second half witnessed OLM on top over the Warriors 5-4. Tom Ohman collected all 4 Warrior points as Joe Affoter and Scott Rodgers each got two points for OLM. The Cheetahs mauled OLM BII 15-4 as Mike Zimmerman scored 13 points. Pay Hoyst scored two for the Cheetahs as did Chris Frankavich for OLM.

FOURTH GRADE Northern Division — The Termites triumphed over the Wildcats 7-6. Termite scorers were Jessie Gregory and Jim Oark. In other action, OLM defeated the All Stars 18-4 behind the sharp shooting of Jee Hanak (7 points) and Dan Vollert (4 points).

FOURTH GRADE Eastern Division — St Thomas More advanced to the championship game with a 9-4 playoff victory over Holy Angeles. The Shamrocks edged the Falcons 6-4 to capture the other championship.

EITHTH GRADE WESTERN DIVISION — OLM outasted the LOBOS 41-40. Pat McGee and Robbie Mascheroni hit for 19 and 17 points respectively for OLM while Lobo Scott Robinson connected for 10. The Saints slipped by the Bucs in overtime 58-57. Mark Crider scored 35 points along with Charlie Commar's 15 for the Saints while Gino Canepa turned in a fine performances for BYA by netting 26 points.

EIGHTH GRADE Eastern Division — OLM handled OLPH 35-26 as Charlie Bosnell earned 16 along with Phil Alfouso's 10 for OLM. BYA blew the St. Andrew Blues away by a score of 51-35. Playing well for BYA were Steve Lipkin and Tim Stathes. The St. Andrews Gray posted a forfeit win over the OLM Reds.

Sky Lions Sponsor Coach-49er Contest

The Daly City Sky Lions will hold its annual basketball night March 18, at 7 p.m., at Serramonte High School.

The Forty-Niners will play Daly City coaches, with proceeds going to youth programs.

Colts Tip Panthers; M-A Splits

El Camino High's baseball team stayed unbeaten in non-league play by defeating host Burlingame 2-0 Saturday at Washington Park.

John Donalaya, one of three outstanding Colt hurlers, struck out eight and allowed only two hits. Donalaya and Burlingame righthander Danny Williams were locked up in a pitching duel for four innings until Camino pushed across the winning run in the fifth.

Rick Doran opened the inning by drawing a walk, and then scampered home on Danny O'Regan's triple to left field. EC also added an insurance run in the sixth.

O'Regan paced Camino's attack with three hits while Rich Bordi and Steve Spediacci contributed a pair of hits each to aid the Colts.

In the first weekend of Menlo-Atherton Tournament play Saturday at Flood Park, M-A split a pair, losing to Gunn 13-7 but shutting off Ayer 3-2.

Spikes Tipped

SALINAS — Skyline College won ten of 17 events but still surrendered the Coast Conference Relays championship to host Hartnell 125-117 Saturday.

The Trojans ran away with practically everything on the track, winning eight of the 10 races handily. But a dropped baton on the second exchange of the 440 relay provided the eventual difference in the meet. Skyline, which had run 41.8 just a week ago, had the race in hand when the mishap occured and Hartnell came on to win in 43.4 — while the Trojans got no points.

A Good Idea for Yams

Nell Norton

Lucious North Carolina yams are available in your market in peak supply from October through April. Take advantage of the plentiful supply and bring them to your table in a variety of ways. They're delicious baked, mashed or candied, and make many wonderful desserts. The versatile yam is also a very nutritious vegetable with a high amount of vitamins A and C.

For a classic dish that's bound to become a favorite of your family, try these hearty Yam stuffed Pork Chops.

YAM STUFFED PORK CHOPS

2 cups mashed cooked yams (4 medium)
¼ cup butter or margarine, divided
¼ cup chopped fresh onion
1 apple, pared, cored and diced
1 teaspoon grated fresh orange rind
2 Tablespoons chopped fresh parsley
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
½ teaspoon dried leaf thyme
1 cup soft bread crumbs
6 double cut pork chops, with pocket for stuffing

To prepare yams, bake in 350-degree oven 40 minutes or cook in boiling water to cover for 20 minutes, until soft. Cool, peel and mash until smooth in large bowl. In small skillet melt 2 tablespoons butter, add the fourth cup onion and cook until tender; add mashed yams. Stir in the one chopped apple, one teaspoon grated orange rind, two tablespoons chopped parsley, one teaspoon salt, one-eighth teaspoon pepper, half teaspoon thyme and one cup soft bread crumbs. Spoon into pockets of pork chops; place any remaining stuffing in a small baking dish and bake, covered, along with chops. Close pork chops with stuffing pins or wooden picks.

In large skillet melt remaining 2 tablespoons butter, add chops and brown on both sides. Remove to a baking dish, cover and bake in 350-degree oven 1 hour or until chops are tender.

Serves 6.

Arrest Made in Multiple Fires

There have been no less than 12 minor fires in the apartment building at 318 Half Moon Lane, Daly City, during the past 30 days.

Day and night firemen have been kept hopping to the scene.

Arson was evident in each case.

For the past two weeks, firemen have staked out the building.

Still the arsons continued, doing little damage but threatening the lives of the three-story building's occupants.

Feb. 28, shortly after 7 p.m., police officer Steve Scrock was on stakeout in the area when he saw one of the residents living on the third floor allegedly ignite a bag of garbage and drop it down the chute.

Arrested and charged with arson was Maria Anna Untalan, 57, of apartment 303, in the Crown Colony complex.

"We still don't know why she was doing it," fire department dispatcher Charles Jenkins said.

Meeting Scheduled By Women's Guild

The Women's Guild of the Convent of the Good Shepherd will hold a general meeting and luncheon on March 23, at the Presidio Golf Club, San Francisco.

The price of the luncheon is $6. Happy Hour will be at 11:30 a.m. and lunch will be served promptly at 12:30 p.m.

Reservations may be made with Mrs. Colin Moreton, 30 Temescal Terrace, San Francisco; telephone 386-0171. Deadline for reservations is March 18.

St. Andrew's Concerts

For its second concert of the 1977 season, St. Andrew's community concerts will present Kathryn Chilcote, lyric soprano, and Matthew Miksak, bass-baritone, with piano accompanist Loyd Carroll in a program of musical comedy and light opera, entitled "Three for All, a Unique Experience in Color and Contrast."

The program will include selections from "Kiss Me Kate," "Man of La Mancha," and "Carnival," as well as arias from "Minon" and "The Barber of Seville."

Kathryn Chilcote is well known in the Bay Area for her work with the San Francisco Talent Bank, West, East and South Bay Opera Associations and the San Francisco Bach Choir. Matthe Miksak has just completed an engagement with the West Bay Opera's recent production of "Tosca," in which he sang the role of Angelotti. He is currently a member of the San Francisco Opera Chorus.

Loyd Carroll, pianist, is a highly acclaimed accompanist, vocal coach and musical director, whose talents have been utilized by the San Francisco Opera, Western Opera Theater, San Diego Opera and the Sacramento and the Sacramento Music Circus.

The concert will be held at St. Andrew's Catholic Church in Daly City, on the corner of Southgate and Sullivan, on March 13, at 3 p.m. Memberships are still being taken or tickets may be purchased at the door. Admission is a donation of $2 for adults and $1 for students and senior citizens.

County Seeks A Grant

The San Mateo County Board of Supervisors has approved the county's joining San Francisco and Marin counties in applying for a $1.2 million grant from the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare (HEW) for emergency medical services.

David Thoene, the county's emergency medical services coordinator, said the grant must be sought on a three-county basis constituting the newly-created Health Systems Agency.

The counties would be required to provide in-kind services to match the monetary grant, Thoene added.

If the grant is approved, San Mateo County's share would be used to complete its emergency communications system, presently being developed.

San Francisco wants to use its share to develop a heliport at San Francisco General Hospital, and Marin County wants to establish a paramedic ambulance service, Thoene said. Also, he reported, the three counties would participate in developing a poison control center in San Francisco.

Supervisor James V. Fitzgerald and William H. Royer took the opportunity during discussion of the matter to comment on the efforts of San Bruno to establish its own paramedic service.

"It's a mistake," Fitzgerald said. "I live in San Bruno and I don't want two paramedic teams fighting over me."

Royer said he had written to the San Bruno City Council expressing his concern over the possibility of duplication of servicees.

At the suggestion of Royer, the board went on to endorse the action of the County Supervisors Association of California calling on the state to freeze county MediCal payments at the 1976-77 level, for the state to reimburse counties for full costs of treating MediCal patients, and for the state to reimburse counties for medical care of county patients not eligible for MediCal.

BRIGHT LIGHTS BY LLOYD ★ JOHNSON

Porterhouse Steak Phil Cuts to Order

PHIL LEHR'S STEAKERY, on the lower level of the San Francisco Hilton Tower, Taylor Street entrance, is one of the few Bay Area restaurants featuring a Porterhouse Steak. Phil cuts it to order — any size — to satisfy everyone from light eaters to hearty appetites..... Credit the TRI SOUNDS with not only packin' crowds into the BAYHILL LOUNGE but for filling the free parking spaces in the Bayhill Shopping Center. Tuesdays through Saturdays are the action nights — and, believe me, there is plenty of that.....Sportsmen who prefer having someone else prepare their wild game while they relax at the bar or in the dining room should head for OLIVER's in South San Francisco. Owners LEO CARDOSI and TONY LA TORRE will have Chef JULIUS RISCHE prepare the wild game to taste perfection.....Nine family-style restaurants are located under one roof at the GARDEN RESTAURANT complex located at TANFORAN PARK Shopping Center, San Bruno. Through March 23, all of the participating restaurants will be honoring a special 50 cent coupon, which may be applied towards any food purchase over one dollar. Valid after 4 p.m. Mondays through Fridays.....A Sunday Champagne Brunch is now featured every Sunday from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the RAMADA INN, Fisherman's Wharf, San Francisco. A choice of six entrees (Eggs Benedict, Eggs Florintine, Scrambled Eggs with Smoked Salmon, Omelettes Maison, Ramada Pancake Supreme, and Cheeze Blintzes), plus fresh Fruit Bar and Salad Bar.....Among the specialties of the house at ROMANO'S Italian restaurant in Rockaway Beach are Mahi Mahi, served with pineapple slice, sauteed almonds, shredded cocoanut, French fries, vegetables, French bread, and Spaghetti Caruso (chicken livers, fresh mushrooms) which includes green salad and French bread.

SONGSTRESS EXTRAORDINAIRE

La Vern Cummings will soon begin his twenty-second year at world famed Finocchio's. With his lovely blonde hair and beautiful gowns, La Vern is always a hit as he amuses patrons with his deep masculine voice and high pitched songs in four shows nightly, except Mondays and Thursdays.

'The Green Grocer' To Scotty Campbell's

You never know who you're going to run into when dining at SCOTTY CAMPBELL'S, says Channel 5 Newscaster Dave McElhatton, who was a dinner guest at this prominent Redwood City restaurant this week. As the kilt-clad waitress was serving his entree she said, "You're not the only celebrity having dinner here tonight. Joe Carcione, "The Green Grocer," is in the dining room, too." Wouldn't you know, the two limelighters were long-time acquaintances and enjoyed a lengthy conversation before departing.....At LEHR'S GREENHOUSE Garden restaurant in San Francisco, the exotic flowers in full bloom and the towering banana palm trees vie with the gourmet continental cuisine for the attention of patrons. It is a wonderful setting for the enjoyment of Chicken Kiev, Scampi and other superb specialties.....Whatever you do, don't overlook the coupon special now being offered at BIG AL'S HOF BRAU AND CASINO in San Bruno. With the coupon ad (see Bright Lights) you will receive one dollar off on any dinner plate or 50 cents off any sandwich from $1.95 through March 31. Also a popular place for Poker, Pan, Lo-Ball, and the Card Room.....The topic of conversation at BARNEY'S CLUB, South Lake Tahoe, is the unveiling of the largest slot machine of its kind in the state of Nevada. The jackpot will be in the $50,000 bracket.....One of the best bets in Stateline on a Sunday morn is the breakfast served at the SOUTH TAHOE NUGGET. A winner from ham to eggs.....At VINCE'S SEAFOOD and ITALIAN restaurant, LOU and TONY LICATA continue to offer an impressive selection of Italian dishes and seafood specialties. All kinds of fresh fish for preparing at home are available at Vince's Depot nextdoor. Fresh crabs are cleaned and cracked.....The ocean-side of the long dining rooms at NICK'S, THE MOONRAKER and CAPTAIN CHARLES restaurants in Rockaway Beach, afford views of breakers dashing to shore and a beach where sea gulls strut. This is the weekend to drive over the hill to this dining mecca in Pacifica.

Robbery Suspects Caught

Two men have been arrested and a third is being sought in connection with the recent robbery of a Daly City restaurant manager outside a Bank of America branch.

Police identified the men as Luther Wright, 19, 1184 Gilman St., Lee Morris Jackson, 20, 1408 Baker St., and Ronnie Lee Cook, 20, 1196 Quezada St., all of San Francisco.

Wright is still at large.

Police apprehended Jackson at his home.

Cook, an unemployed security guard, was arrested without a struggle at his home Wednesday after detectives traced to him a van allegedly used in the robbery of Steven Prichardt, 45, of Daly City.

Prichardt, who is still in the intensive care unit of Mary's Help Hospital with a fractured skull, told Police that one of the men who attacked him as he was making a deposit outside the bank at the corner of East Market and Mission Streets, wore a security guard's uniform.

Police said Prichardt was struck on the head with a night stick similar to the type of club used by police and security guards.

Prichardt remained unconscious for several days. He reportedly is now conscious and in stable condition.

The victim is the manager of the Jack-in-the-Box restaurant on Mission Street — about two blocks from the bank. He was about to drop receipts from the business into the night depository when three men approached him.

He told police he was struck on the head and the men grabbed the cash and fled.

A passing motorist saw the incident and gave a description of the trio and the van to police.

A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Wright on charges of armed robbery. Bail has been set at $50,000, police said.

Both Cook and Jackson were charged with armed robbery.

WHEN IRISH EYES ARE SMILING

Helping to plan the annual St. Patrick's dance held by Our Lady of Mercy Parish are, left to right, Mrs. James McCann, Mrs. Richard Galliani, Mrs. John Sullivan, John Sullivan and Ed McEntee. The event, called "Irish Mist II," will be held on March 18 in the Parish Hall. Dancing begins at 9 p.m. with a buffet served at midnight. For reservations, call Mrs. Sullivan at 756-4071 or Mrs. Galliani at 756-6312.

Quentin Kopp Talks To BIJ Sisterhood

The Sisterhood of the Temple on Brotherhood Way San Francisco, will hold a special meeting on March 15 at 8 p.m. in Fellowship Hall of the temple. This meeting will be open to all, with no admission charge.

The BIJ Sisterhood is honored to have as their guest speaker Quentin Kopp, who is President of the Board of Supervisors in San Francisco. He is also a member of the congregation and serves on the Board of Trustees.

Refreshments will be served by the ladies of the Sisterhood.

Students Go Rummaging

The Student Union at Opportunities Industrialization Center West is having a rummage sale on March 12 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at 545 E. First Ave., San Mateo.

For further information, call 343-3691.

PTA Arts Honors to DC Pupils

The National PTA annually holds a Cultural Arts Reflections Project to encourage creative expression among children and youth in the form of visual arts, literature and music. The theme this year was "What the World Needs Now . . ."

The first level of judging took place in 17th District PTA (San Mateo Co.). The three first place winners in the Visual Arts Division are children in FESD schools. Their work goes now to Los Angeles and will be judged by members of the Parent Education Commission and Consultants.

Annabell Rebultan, a first grader at JFK School won the primary division with a tempera painting. Nao Pokuka, a fourth grader at Westlake School won first place in the Intermediate Division for his watercolor and Carlos Guadamuz of Colmas Int. School, an eighth grader, won first place in the Junior High Division for his nature mosaic/college.

Non-Official Is Sought

A public member is needed on the 27-member Criminal Justice Council of San Mateo County, according to Charles R. Allen, chairman and San Carlos city administrator.

Allen encouraged persons who have experience working with youth or someone from the minority community to apply for the seat on the commission, which is composed mostly of elected and appointive officials.

Applications should be submitted to Anne Taylor, executive director, 1860 El Camino Real, Suite 439, Burlingame 94010, no later than Wednesday, March 15.

FOR SAVING A LIFE

Daly City police officer Ernie E. da Roza receives a certificate of commendation from Assistant Chief Richard C. Sims of the Daly City Police Department for efforts that saved a hysterical woman who was intent on shooting herself.

Chope Hospital Decision

Pediatrics May Get Another Look

By MICHELLE CARTER

Despite the vote of the Board of Supervisors on March 1, inpatient pediatric care at Chope Community Hospital may get a second chance at life.

Dr. Harvey Kaplan, chief of pediatrics at Chope, has expressed concern at the decision to contract out pediatric inpatient services to other hospitals in the county.

He is hoping to convince the Board that a pediatrics department can be carved out of the remaining 100 beds at Chope. Supervisors Edward Bacciocco and James Fitzgerald have expressed willingness to listen to such a plan.

In another action 19 social workers in the Dependent Children's Services of the county Health and Welfare Department have sent a letter to the Board describing themselves as "astounded and appalled" at the decision.

At the present time, Chope provides medical care for children under the responsibility of the Dependent Children's Services, children who are living at the county Receiving Home and children who are suspected victims of child abuse and neglect in addition to its regular pediatric service.

The social workers are afraid that termination of pediatrics will impair medical services for these children and jeopardize the Child at Risk committee, the newly-organized multidisciplinary child abuse team headed by Dr. Kaplan which operates out of Chope.

Howard Classen, Chope administrator, insists that these services will not suffer, but he is not yet sure how it will all be arranged. The decision to eliminate pediatrics came as a surprise to most people at Chope, he said, and "the shock of this decision has created some confusion."

Dr. Kaplan foresees a lot of confusion, too.

"It's not going to be easy for the police or the social services people. Where will they bring children under protective custody now? It's not that easy to divide things up."

He pointed out that a pediatric staff will remain at Chope to handle the outpatient clinic, and "I think it would be relatively easy to carve out a new place for pediatrics within the new 100-bed confines of the hospital. The hospital is quite spacious and very little remodeling would be required to do it. Almost no county funds were spent to fix up the pediatrics ward we have now. The volunteers did most of the painting and decorating themselves.

"I think (the Board) thought this is what we wanted, but no one ever asked me what the implications of moving inpatient services out of Chope would be. I'm not sure they knew that that's what they were doing when they voted.

"As long as they've decided to keep Chope as part of a comprehensive health care system, I don't see why they chose to isolate out pediatrics. I think we have been providing needed services."

Classen said that finding a place for pediatrics within the remaining 100 beds is a possibility that would be discussed at a meeting with Supervisors Bacciocco and William Royer.

"I hate to say what we can do to meet the directive of the Board. Hopefully they will be flexible in allowing us to find a way. But (to keep pediatrics at Chope) we would have to prove that it would be cost effective."

Cost effectiveness is the major concern of Supervisor Fitzgerald too. "I have to ask myself how I can keep Chope open and be fiscally responsible. We have a no-growth situation in San Mateo County and every hospital is having trouble keeping their obstetrical and pediatric wards going and Chope is no different.

"I really don't want to open things up again, but if someone has a plan (to keep pediatrics at Chope), I will listen."

Although Fitzgerald challenged Dr. Kaplan's contention that the supervisors weren't aware that they were voting to eliminate inpatient pediatrics at Chope, Bacciocco admitted that he thought the beds would be eliminated but that the services would be shifted within the hospital

County Proposal Ready

The proposed Recreation Element of the San Mateo County General Plan will be distributed with daily and county newspapers soon, according to County Planning Director Donald A. Woolfe.

The proposed plan was developed by the Parks and Recreation Citizens Advisory Committee, with the assistance of the county planning staff.

Woolfe said it makes more sense to distribute 140,000 copies of the plan to newspaper readers than to spend funds for the usual planning report which has limited circulation.

The proposed plan seeks to interest county residents in participating in a series of public meetings concerning the county's future recreation needs.

The meetings will be followed by an all-day workshop Saturday, April 16, at the College of San Mateo gymnasium.

The schedule of public meetings:

Tuesday, March 29, 7:30 p.m., Half Moon Bay Library, Wednesday, March 30, 7:30 p.m., El Camino High School Little Theater, South San Francisco, and San Mateo City Hall; Thursday, March 31, East Palo Alto Municipal Center, and Board of Supervisors Chambers, Redwood City.

League Sets March Sale

The second annual League of Women Voters rummage sale will take place March 12-13, with proceeds going to further the programs and services of the League of North San Mateo County.

The sale will be held at the OICW Job Training Center, 217 E. Grand Ave., South San Francisco, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on March 12 and from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. on March 13.

Tall Sculpture Deemed Not Tall Enough

Landscaping and sign plans for a six-story office building at Bayhill Office Park were approved by the San Bruno Planning Commission Monday night.

Commissioners agreed that the plans submitted by the architectural firm of Robinson and Mills of San Francisco would enhance the appearance of the concrete structure formerly known as the MacKenzie Hill project.

Building plans for the project at the corner of Cherry Avenue and Bayhill Drive had been approved by the commission and the City Council in 1975, but were subject to several conditions, including the submission of landscaping and sign drawings prior to the beginning of construction.

Delays in the submission of those plans, it was explained, occurred when the MacKenzie Hill developers decided not to go ahead with their project but to instead turn it over to the Borel Development Companies of San Mateo.

A representative of Borel told the commission that his company has agreed to develop and manage the property, owned by the Aetna Life Insurance Co.

The Borel Development Companies built Borel Estates, an office complex and community shopping center on El Camino Real in San Mateo, and the Peninsula Office Park, north of Hillsdale Boulevard near the College of San Mateo.

Matthew Mills of the architectural firm explained in detail the varieties of vegetation which will surround the complex. He especially emphasized an area adjacent to the southeast corner of the building, where a semi-enclosed, depressed grassy area will be planted.

In the center of the area will be erected a sculpture, at least 24 feet tall. The sculpture, according to Mills, will be in the form of a concrete obelisk.

A model of the structure showed that the sides of the obelisk would not be connected, so that the brightly painted inside walls would be visible.

Commissioners Girvin Whitney and Pat Cummins expressed mild concern about the sculpture. Cummins said he would like the art object to be slightly taller against such a large building, and Whitney remarked that concrete might be easier for vandals to deface than would some other material.

Mills replied, and the commission ultimately agreed, that he would work further with the staff on the shape of the sculpture. The Commissioners ordered that the structure be no less than 24 feet high.

Mills told Whitney, "We have found that if vandals are intent upon deforming, they can deform anything no matter what the material."

Bill Kelly, director of planning and building, praised the architect for his landscape design, especially the tiered parking lot design which Kelly said "breaks up the monotony of the sea of asphalt effect typical of most large projects."

In other business, the commission:

• Granted a variance for an addition to a building at 223 El Camino Real. The additional space will be used as a warehouse.

• Granted a use permit to an auto leasing operation located at 958 El Camino Real.

Building Limited

A temporary policy to control development in the largest vacant parcels in San Bruno will be prepared by the planning staff and presented to the City Council later this month.

Councilman Tony Governale this week suggested that some policy setting limits on the heights of buildings be established for vacant parcels which the City Council has designated as multi-use study areas.

According to Bill Kelly, director of planning and building, the policy statement will limit building heights to six stories.

He said the policy will remain in effect until the city completes an environmental study of the multi-use areas, probably in 12 months.

Governale said he wants the city to have some control over development plans that may be submitted while the city is preparing its environmental report.

When the City Council adopted the land use element of the general plan recently, it designated four areas as multi-use study zones.

They are a 20-acre parcel south of the I-380 and fronting El Camino Real, presently in a C-O or commercial office zone; all the undeveloped land at Bayhill presently zoned PD or planned development; the American Savings property north of the Tanforan Park Shopping Center, zoned PD and A-R or administrative research; and the undeveloped Navy Lincoln land, zoned A-R.

SSF Council Elects Mayor

The South San Francisco City Council will elect its new mayor and vice mayor at a special meeting at 7 p.m. today in the West Orange Avenue Library Auditorium.

The meeting will be followed by a champagne reception, open to the public, at Morales Hall, 209 Miller Ave.

Controversy Over Post of Mayor

By RICK SULLIVAN

The bid for the mayorship, a routine, ceremonial transfer of power in most general law cities, is building to a showdown between two philosophical allies on the San Bruno City Council.

Councilman Richard Griffith said this week he would insist that he be elected mayor this year over the man who is current vice mayor and next in line for the mayoralty, 25-year-old Gary Mondfrans.

Griffith said he would appeal to the "integrity" of his colleagues by demanding that they appoint him mayor this year, since he was passed over last year, when he was vice mayor.

It is parliamentary procedure in most general law cities such as San Bruno to rotate the mayorship among all the councilmen.

"One year ago, having held the office of vice mayor for one year," said Griffith, "I was bypassed for the selection of mayor. Thus I became at that time the councilman who had served the longest without being afforded the honor of mayorship.

"In fairness, I do not believe that Vice Mayor Mondfrans would object to have his term as mayor postponed one year as mine was, and then the rotation could be resumed," he added.

Last year, three members of the council — Margaret Kozkowski, John Barnard and Tony Governale — voted against the appointment of Griffith as mayor.

Both Mrs. Kozkowski and Barnard argued that Griffith, considered by some to be a maverick councilman, could not be trusted to represent the council's point of view at meetings outside the city.

Governale opposed the councilman because at the time Griffith was campaigning for a seat on the County Board of Supervisors. Governale reasoned that Griffith would be too busy campaigning to adequately perform his duties as mayor.

Mondfrans last year nominated Griffith for the mayorship, emphasizing then that he believed in the rotation system. He even went as far as to decline any nomination of himself as mayor.

Mondfrans and the other councilmen unsuccessfully urged Griffith to serve another year as vice mayor.

The rejection of Griffith as mayor and the election instead of Mrs. Koskowski deeply split the community.

Griffith's supporters stormed several council meetings and at one time were forcibly ejected. They carried placards outside the council chambers demanding the recall of Griffith's three opponents.

The recall movement never materialized.

"An attempt to bypass me again (for the mayorship) would in itself be another attempt to humiliate me; it would be double humiliation," Griffith said.

"It's like standing in line and having someone buck in front of you twice in a row," he added.

"I just hope," he said, "that Gary will come forward and show his integrity by voting for me as mayor and thus re-establishing the rotation."

The post of mayor, Griffith said, is important to him because it is an honorary position given to all those who have served for at least three years.

He said his election would have a "healthy effect on the community that supports him" and also would free the upcoming election from the mayoralty issue.

Next March, the terms of office of Griffith, Governale and Mrs. Kozkowski expire.

"I'm afraid," said Griffith, "that if I am not selected mayor then, much of the election campaign next year will center around the unfairness certain incumbents showed me."

Griffith acknowledged that the struggle for the mayorship last year sharply divided the community, and he suggested the same thing might happen again this time.

"I feel it is my duty to represent the will of the community and to correct the injustice that has been done me," he added.

Mondfrans replied this week, "I believe in the rotation policy. I supported Dick (Griffith) when he was in the rotation last year and I hope to avoid a bloodbath this year.

"The transfer of power in a democracy, even the symbolic transfer that a gavel represents in this country, should not be a major fight and should not divide the community," Mondfrans said.

Mondfrans added that he thinks Griffith's position now is "unfair, since he supported the rotation last year and actually nominated Griffith for the mayorship.

"Dick should have accepted the vice mayorship last year, and this year there would be no problem with him being named the mayor," said Mondfrans.
